1.0 RIGHT OF OCCUPATION

1.1 The City Council grants to the stall occupier the right of occupation (herein-after referred to as the "right of occupation") of stall no. .... (herein-after referred to as the "stall") in the ..... section in the ..... Market/Fair, situated at

....., Port Louis, under the terms and conditions set put below.

1.2. The Right of Occupation is granted for the exclusive use of the Stall only and at no time, shall the stall occupier occupy any other space in the Market/fair under this present contract. The stall occupier shall confine himself for the purpose of his/her trade to the space allotted to him/her by the City Council.

2.0. PURPOSE

2.1. The stall occupier shall occupy the stall for the sole purpose of selling ..... only and shall have no right to sell any other products in the Stall.

3.0 DURATION AND RENEWAL

3.1. The right of occupation shall be for a period of ..... Year(s) from the .....to the .....

3.2. At its expiry, the right of occupation may be renewed, at the option of the City Council; such renewal may also be upon such revised terms, conditions, periods and/or fees, if any, as may be determined by the Council;

3.3. In case there are any revised terms, conditions, periods and/or fees, the proposed revision(s), shall be notified in writing to the stall occupier, 60 days before the determination of the right of occupation; for this purpose, the letter containing the proposed revision(s) shall be posted at the address, herein-below set out, of the stall occupier.

3.4. In the event that the stall occupier accepts to renew the Right of Occupation and accepts all the revised proposals, if any, the Stall Occupier shall, accordingly, enter into a new contract with the City Council at the expiry of the right of occupation.

3.5. In the event of non-acceptance and/or of refusal to sign the new contract, the right of occupation shall be terminated "ipso facto" and the stall occupier shall vacate the stall forthwith.

4.0. FEES AND NON-PAYMENT THEREOF

- 4.1 The Right of Occupation of the stall is granted in consideration of a monthly fee (the “Right of Occupation Fee”) which amounts to Rs..... and shall be paid in full and in advance by the stall-occupier by the tenth of each month starting by the tenth of the current month.
- 4.2 Such payment shall be made at the City Council of Port Louis, Cashier’s Office.
- 4.3 In the event the stall occupier fails to pay the Right of Occupation Fee for a minimum of 2 months, the City Council shall send a notice (the “Notice”), by registered letter, to the stall occupier requesting him/her to settle all arrears of right of occupation fee within a delay of 7 days from receipt of the notice and notifying him/her that failure to do so may entail the termination of the right of occupation “ipso facto”; in case the stall occupier fails to comply with all the requirements of the Notice, the right of occupation may be rescinded “ipso facto”; such letter shall be sent by post or delivered at the address set out below and it shall be deemed to be sufficient service on the stall occupier.
- 4.4 Such rescission, if any, shall be without prejudice to any other action, which the City Council may lawfully be entitled to take against the stall occupier. The stall occupier shall forthwith vacate the stall and remove all articles there from. The stall occupier shall not be entitled to the payment of any indemnity or refund whatsoever.
- 4.5 The Monthly fee is paid irrespective of the yearly Trade fee which is to be paid by the stall occupier in respect of his trade in the stall.

5.0. SUBLETTING

- 5.1 The stall occupier shall not be entitled to sell, transfer, cede, let, assign or otherwise dispose the right of occupation. In case the stall occupier has done any such act or acts, the right of occupation shall come to an end “de plein droit” without any other formality or authority and the stall occupier shall be informed accordingly by letter sent by registered post at the address set out below.

5.2. Such rescission shall be without prejudice to any other action, which the City Council may lawfully be entitled to take against the stall occupier. The stall occupier shall forthwith cause the stall to be fully vacated and shall cause all articles to be removed there from. The stall occupier shall not be entitled to the payment of any indemnity or refund whatsoever.

6.0. EMPLOYEES

6.1. The stall occupier shall have the right to employ a maximum of two employees to assist him in his trade in the stall.

6.2. The stall occupier shall submit four passport size photographs of his employee/s and have the said employee/s registered officially with the Council and with the Ministry of Social Security and National Solidarity (National Pension Fund) in accordance with the National Pension Act.

6.3. Any new employee shall be properly registered as set out clause 6.2 above.

7.0. STRUCTURAL CHANGES AND CHANGE IN SITE/LOCATION

7.1. The City Council reserves itself the right to carry out any structural change on the stall or to alter the general layout of the market/fair without the stall occupier being entitled to any compensation whatsoever for loss of trade or otherwise. Such right shall include any alterations, repairs should the City Council consider it advisable.

7.2. For the purpose of carrying out works for structural change or upon the alteration of the general layout of the market/fair, the City Council may, if it deems necessary, cause a change, whether provisional or permanent, in the site/location of any stall within the market/fair.

7.3. The stall occupier shall have no right, without the authorisation in writing of the City Council, to cause any change of any nature whatsoever of the stall and/or of the general layout of the market fair.

- 7.4. The stall occupier shall have no right, without the authorisation in writing of the City Council, to interchange his/her Stall with any other Stall Occupier and with whomsoever.
- 7.5. In the event the stall occupier has been authorised, in writing, to cause changes in the stall, the stall occupier shall have no right to claim any indemnity, compensation or the refund of any costs for such works; any plus value given to the stall shall accrue to the City Council.
- 7.6. In case the stall occupier vacates the stall for any reason whatsoever or in case of death of the stall occupier, no party (including the stall occupier, his employees, his heirs and assigns) shall not be entitled to the payment of any indemnity, compensation, plus value or any damage such as for the construction and installation of protective shutters, shelves, counters, working tables, etc. and or other works of any nature, carried out and which shall remain forever the property of the City Council.

8.0 ELECTRICITY AND OTHER CHARGES

- 8.1. In case the stall occupier requires for the purpose of his trade electricity, water or any other services, he shall apply to the City Council in writing who may grant him such authorisation and give him such directions as it may deem fit and proper. All costs, charges, etc. shall be at the stall-occupier's costs and expenses. Pending the installation of individual meters by the Central Electricity Board/Central Water Authority, the stall-occupier agrees to contribute, to refund or to pay back to the City Council such sum of money for his share of electricity/water used in his trade and consumed by him. He or she will have to settle same regularly within 10 days as from the date the claim has been sent to him. The City Council shall not be responsible at all for any damage, prejudice or inconvenience that the stall-occupier may suffer in case the electricity/water supply is disconnected or cancelled for any reason whatsoever.
- 8.2. In the event the stall occupier fails to refund the City Council for a minimum of two months, any charges of electricity and/or water paid by City Council on his behalf, the City Council shall send a notice (the "Notice"), by registered letter, to the stall occupier requesting him to settle all arrears thereof within a delay of 7 days from receipt of the notice and notifying him that failure to do so may entail the termination of the right of occupation "ipso facto"; in case the stall occupier fails to comply with all the requirements of the Notice, the Right of Occupation may be rescinded. Such letter shall be sent by post or delivered at the address set out below and it shall be deemed to be sufficient service on the stall occupier.

9.0 RELOCATION AND CLOSURE

- 9.1. In the event that the City Council has, for any reasons whatsoever that it may deem fit, to relocate the market/fair to another location, the City Council shall notify the stall occupier and shall, as far as practicable, give to the stall occupier an alternative Stall in the new relocated site.
- 9.2. In the event that the City Council has, for any reasons whatsoever that it may deem necessary, to close the market/fair or any part thereof, the City Council shall notify the stall occupier and may, as far as practicable, give to the stall occupier an alternative Stall at another site.
- 9.3. In case no alternative stall is available, as set out in clauses 9.1 and 9.2 above, the stall occupier shall vacate the stall at such date as the Council may direct. Such vacation shall be without any compensation.

10.0 DEATH OF STALL OCCUPIER

- 10.1. The stall-occupier's death shall put an end to the contract binding him to the City Council and The City Council shall have the right to take back the possession of the stall immediately.
- 10.2. In case the stall-occupier passes away, any of his heirs must immediately inform the Council about the demise of the stall-occupier and produce the act of death.
- 10.3. On humanitarian grounds, the City Council is agreeable that any of ascendant, descendant or surviving spouse, continue the Right of Occupation of the stall until the expiry of the Trade Fee for the current year only provided that the stall occupier herewith appoints his successor as per clause 10.4 below. In case no appointment is made, the right to continue to occupy the stall until the expiry of the trade fee for the current year shall not be applicable.

10.4. The stall occupier hereby appoints as his successor ..... being his ascendant/descendant/surviving spouse to continue to occupy the Stall until the expiry of the Trade Fee for the current year.

10.5. At the expiry of the Trade Fee for the current year, the right of occupation shall lapse ipso facto and the successor shall have to vacate the Stall.

10.6. The City Council may allocate, after the aforesaid authorisation set out in clause 10.3 above has lapsed, the stall to a heir of the stall occupier for the remaining period of the Right of Occupation provided that the heir –

(i) submits a transfer requesting respect of the occupier of the stall;

(ii) has reached his/her 18th birthday at the time of submission of the transfer request;

(iii) submits a written consent of all the heirs, if any, entitled to the estate and succession of the late Stall Occupier together with a copy of the respective identity cards of each of the heirs;

(iv) produces a copy of his/her identity card and a copy of the affidavit of succession of the late stall occupier.

(v) is not already the holder of any stall, shop or other place inside a market or fair;

11.0 COMPLIANCE

11.1 All the provisions contained in all Municipal Markets/Fairs Regulations made under the Local Government Act shall apply to all markets/fairs generally and the stall occupier and his employees, successors and/or heirs shall comply therewith.

11.2. Should the Stall occupier be found guilty by a Court in virtue of a contravention of regulations or of any other enactment relating to trade in the market/fair, the Council may rescind the contract by notice in writing and without any judicial or extra judicial process.

In that case, the stall-occupier shall forthwith vacate the stall and remove all articles there from. He shall not be entitled to receive any indemnity whatsoever from the City Council.

11.3. In case the stall occupier and/or his successor and/or his heir provide false or incorrect information, the City Council may rescind the right of occupation "ipso facto".

11.4. Should the stall occupier fail to comply with any one of the abovementioned Clauses, the City Council shall send a notice (the "Notice"), by registered letter, to the stall occupier requesting him to comply with the clause within a delay of 7 days from receipt of the Notice and notifying him/her that failure to do so may entail the termination of the right of occupation "ipso facto"; in case the Stall Occupier fails to comply with all the requirements of the notice, the right of occupation may be rescinded "ipso facto". Such letter shall be sent by post or delivered at the address set out below and it shall be deemed to be sufficient service on the stall occupier.
